

Connect with the Alliance online!

The website www.RetiredAmericans.org still allows you to:

- Read or sign up for the Friday Alert – the free weekly newsletter
- Check out the Congressional Voting Record and reports on key issues
- Discover Member Benefits
- And much more

New Social Networking Opportunities!

(Links to the new Alliance blog; Facebook Page; member photos on Flickr; and Youtube station can be found on the Alliance's mainpage www.retiredamericans.org)

- Join the Alliance community on Facebook. Become a FAN of the Alliance online. Go to www.facebook.com/retiredamericans and click "Like." Keep in touch with people and causes that are important to you, and organize Alliance events on the world's largest social networking site!
- Check out Alliance photos on the Flickr channel: www.flickr.com/retiredamericans. This photo-sharing site allows us to organize and share photos from the state and national events - find yourself or allies on our Flickr site – or watch a slideshow of an event!
- Find the latest videos on the Alliance's Youtube station: www.youtube.com/retiredamericans. Youtube is a videosharing site where you'll find amazing testimonial videos from fellow Alliance members, and features to share at meetings. States also post videos on Alliance people and issues at www.youtube.com/alliancefield.
- Visit the Alliance blog: <http://ara.typepad.com>. An interactive space for posts on national, state and local Alliance events including new photos & video! Feel free to post your comments on the blog by clicking "comment" below a post.